CAPTURED BY THE POLICE

Mart Franklin, A. B. Clark and G. Clark, alleged swindlers, were taken into custody Saturday afternoon by Detectives Robert Chambers and Grant Syphers and booked at the police station on charges of vagrancy The trio is said to have made an at tempt to swindle a tourist en route n her neck which was supposed to to San Francisco, out of a large sum to his train with his traveling funds

Detectives Chambers and Syphers were at the depot when the tourist ar-rived there and he told them of his experience with a stranger, who is thought by the officers to have been Franklin. He said the stranger struck up an acquaintance with him while walking up and down the depot platform. Learning that he was going west on Southern Pacific train No. 5, his new found friend said he was also booked for passage on the same train and then said he had to get a parcel He invited the tourist to accompany him and the latter accepted.

Franklin, it is said, led the tourist to the Paris rooming house on Wall avenue, stopped in front of it for a minute or two and then said he was mistaken in the place and that they would have to go a little farther along. The tourist, however, became suspicious and returned to the depot. about ten minutes before train time.

After listening to the tourist's story, Detectives Chambers and Syphers started on a hunt for Franklin. They located him about an hour later, in company with the Clarks, and took all three to the police station. After being booked, they were released on payment of $100 bail, Franklin putting Through Attorney A. G. Horn, they entered pleas of not guilty this morn ing in the municipal court and their trials were set for Wednesday morn

When searched Saturday night, the three men were well loaded with bogus express receipts and bills of
